University of CINCINNATI | CLERMONT

Career and Technical Center Articulation Agreement

College: UC Clermont College	Career and Technical Center: Great Oaks Career Campus-Live Oaks
College Program: Manufactoring Engineering Technology	Local Program: Manufacturing Engineering Technology
Degree: Asociate of Applied Science
Date: November 13, 2024

Agreement Purpose

This agreement recognizes career and technical center students who follow a seamless curriculum pathway from high school to a postsecondary associate degree or credential at the University of Cincinnati Clermont College. A graduate who successfully completes academic and technical course competencies required in the secondary program is eligible to receive college credit for the courses specified in this agreement.

Student Responsibilities

Students seeking college credit through this agreement will:

- Complete high school competencies associated with the LIVE OAK's Manufacturing Engineering Technology program in a pathway aligned with the University of Cincinnati Clermont College's
- Submit an application for admission to the University of Cincinnati Clermont College (www.ucclermont.uc.edu)
- Submit an official high school transcript
- Obtain Career and Technical Prep College Credit Transmittal Recommendation from the designated administrator at the career and technical center. Submit the signed form to the University of Cincinnati
- Matriculate to the University of Cincinnati Clermont College Manufacturing Engineering Technology program within two years from high school graduation.

Secondary School Responsibilities

High school instructors and administrators will:

- Complete a Career and Technical Prep College Credit Transmittal Recommendation form for each student prior to his/her graduation; provide a signed copy to the student and maintain a file copy
- Communicate to students and parents the requirements and process as outlined in this agreement for obtaining the University of Cincinnati Clermont College articulated credit

The University of Cincinnati Clermont College Responsibilities

- When a student matriculates to the University of Cincinnati Clermont College and submits the Career and Technical Prep College Credit Transmittal Form , the Registrar will record achieved articulated course credit on the student's college transcript
  The University of Cincinnati will waive tuition and fees for articulated credit
- The University of Cincinnati Clermont College has evaluated these course competencies and agrees to articulate and award advanced placement credit for the following courses upon meeting the

College Course #	College Course Name	Type of Credit	Credit Hours
MFTN 1099C	Principles of Machining	College	3
EGTN2076C	CAM	College	3
		Total	6

College Program Chair
Douglas Mcphillips

Great Oaks CFO
Brian Rabe

Division Chair
Christopher Goodman

Sr. Assistant Dean, Academic Affairs
Richard C. Stackpole